

April 21, 2023

Number of Head: 1,200

There were 170 cows and 18 bulls. The market was fairly steady with last week. The top bull brought $124/cwt and the top packer cow sold for $108/cwt.

The calf market was once again steady to higher than last week. A little lighter run today, but we are thankful for the needed rain throughout the area. The demand was strong and an active market across the board. The overall average value saw an increase of $35 per head. A good and solid market!!
