

July 31, 2026

Total volume reached 1,049 head this week, including 75 cows and 17 bulls. Packer cows held steady, while bulls gained $5–$10.

Following a couple of weeks of decline, the calf market itself rebounded, running $4–$5 higher on average. Weights averaged over 500 lbs. for the first time since December, pushing the overall calf average up $83/head compared to last week. We hope to see this positive momentum continue next week.

Next weaned calf sale is Friday, August 7, 2026
